Thornton Fractional North 1960

“Enter to learn, go forth to serve”

This is the motto of Thornton Fractional North High School, and it expresses T.F.’s basic purposes. The school’s pupils “enter to learn,” which they do primarily in classes but also in extracurricular activities and through association with faculty members and other students. But they do not content themselves merely with learning: They “go forth to serve,” to apply their knowledge for the benefit of others.

Because this expression so typifies T.F., it is the theme of this year’s Chronoscope. In the following pages the numerous facts of this motto will pass in glittering array. The teachers, the classes, the plays and clubs, and dances, and many other events will all be there to serve as a cherished reminder of the school year 1959-1960.

The members of the Chronoscope Staff have tried hard to compile an interesting book. They sincerely thank all who have so generously assisted with its production and truly hope that its readers will enjoy it.

Meteors Have .500 Year

The story of the Meteors this year centered around the close ones. Remembered will be the rainy afternoon at Elmwood Park and the blocked punt that gave the victory to E.P. in the last three minutes of play. Also remembered will be the Meteors' close victory in the first annual North-South game when Mike Klein threw to Les Herman, and the clock dispute that arose in that 6-0 contest. Nor will Coach Jerry Jelinek's fine energetic mentoring be forgotten by any of the team. Hopes are for an equally fine job by next year's squad.

Cagers Suffer Bad Year

There is nothing you can pin-point as the chief factor in the Meteors poor 4-14 record, altho lack of spirit stands out. Of Most Valuable Player Andy Samide, Coach Wally Horvatich says, "I wish we had had about four more like him this year."

TENSED UP for game, Meteors gather together before opening tip-off to remind each other to play for the team and to listen to orders.

LOOSE PLAY was Meteors' biggest headache. Les Herman watches ball bounce away from him as he drives into John Legg for a lay-up. North team repeatedly gave ball away.

Sophomores Aim High

Coach Donald Hakes did a good job in his first year of coaching the sophomore cage team and preparing them to take positions on the varsity. This years' team included many fine freshmen. It is hoped their interest will be kept for four years use.

The above boys seem to be watching their performances on the opposite page. And well they might, for Fractional experienced another good year for wrestling. Two boys, Joe Young and Bob Hopp, qualified for the state wrestling finals. Hopp won first place in the heavyweight division, the roughest of all weight classes. The 27-17 victory over TF South was the highlight of North's 10-5-1 record.

These are the boys who will take up positions on the varsity wrestling squad next year. Aiding Mr. Vega in coaching the embryo matmen was Manuel Mireles, student assistant coach.

Coach Ed Fedosky's varsity swimmers fell below the .500 mark in their last meet, but still compiled an impressive 7-8 record. Success again next year will depend on the fine crop of juniors and underclassmen moving in to take positions of their own.

JUNIOR CLASS AND OFFICERS

After a long two years wait, the juniors finally reign as upperclassmen and anxiously look forward to their senior year. They soon learn how to accept responsibilities and prepare to become the leaders of tomorrow.

Leading the way for their class, were four senior class officers, who arranged for the election of the new officers and organized a Carnival concession and other activities to help raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom. Another important responsibility of the class officers is to set a date for the Junior-Senior "sneak," a holiday for only these privileged upperclassmen.

The National Forensic League is composed of members of the speech and debate teams. It was designed to encourage competition in debate, oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and other forms of oral expression. Membership is obtained through obtaining several victories in speech competition.

The Art Club, sponsored by Mrs. Lois Lembcke, meets after school to discuss various projects such as posters for the halls and a social during the mid-winter months.

The Science Club, which is directed by Mr. Carl Tchalo, was organized only a few years ago with the purpose of giving its active members an opportunity to work in the laboratory on projects of their own choosing. This year the club has undertaken the project of a weather station.

Learning While Serving

"Learning through Service" may very well be the motto of the stooges — the helpful assistants of Miss Aleline Jaacks, T.F.'s financial advisor. The girls assist Miss Jaacks by working at all school athletic and social events, selling tickets, and helping Miss Jaacks in the financial matters of T.F.

The top ten magazine salesman of T.F., after an inspiring magazine assembly, went out and sold a large number of subscriptions during the annual magazine drive. The subscriptions help to pay for the publication of the CHRONOSCOPE.

Going Forth To Serve – 1960 Senior Class

Senior Class and Officers

To the senior class, the four years of their high school life will hold many memories of lasting friendships, social and scholastic activities, and thrilling sports competition. Memories that began as the seniors "enter to learn" and ended as they "go forth to serve."

The four senior class officers of 1960 led the way for the entire class. Planning for the election of the carnival king and queen, and arranging the necessary senior class committees are just two of the duties of the class officers. Another important duty is the organizing and producing of special senior class assemblies.

The 1959-60 School Year

Going Forth to serve, the senior class will remember the school year of 1959 as the year of a winning football team, a bigger and more gigantic homecoming celebration, especially the parade. This first big event of the year, saw Carol Stefaniak as the homecoming queen.

The Dramatics Club sparked the 1959-1960 school year with their presentation of "Angel Street," the fall production, and "Lute Song," the spring production. Many TF'ers will always remember the contest play, "Anastasia."

Perhaps the best remembered event of the school year by all the students was the Carnival. A huge audience turned out to view "The Big Top" as the cast presented a stage show based on a circus theme.

The exciting moment of the Carnival was the crowning of Rich Dluzak and Marilyn Scheffki as the 1959 Carnival King and Queen.

The two most well-remembered social events of the year were the Girl's Club Dance, "Oriental Dream," and the Boys' Club Dance, which was held in the spring of the year.

Highlighting the school year with a touch of music were the annual winter and spring concerts. TF'ers will always remember the selections played by the bands and the songs sung by the choruses.

But the most enjoyable evening of this last year at T.F. was Prom. Beautiful decorations and soft lights and music made it a night long to be remembered.

The long-anticipated graduation finally arrived and the 1959-1960 school year came to a close. The seniors still held in their memories the day they "Entered to Learn," but most of all they will continue to remember vividly the day they "Go Forth to Serve."

what's their future

The young people you see in these pictures are all on their way to successful careers in one of America's basic industries . . . steel. They decided (as we hope you will decide) to let Inland Steel Company help them plan their future.

Some are gaining knowledge and experience in special trades to become journeyman machinists, carpenters or electricians . . . some are concentrating on certain phases of steelmaking by working in the open hearth shops, the cold rolling mills or the galvanizing lines. Still others are working in laboratories building a sound foundation for a future in steel research.

Inland offers the high school graduate an excellent opportunity to further his education. Employees may participate in a variety of on-the-job training programs, or they can continue their formal education by registering for evening courses offered by local Purdue and Indiana University Extension Centers.

Plan now to investigate the unlimited opportunities for you in steel . . . with the midwest's own steel company . . . INLAND STEEL.
